ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

A yearbook is made not only of paper, ink, photos, and sketches, but of the combined efforts and hours of work of a staff with the entire student body. To all the students who cooperated with us in our many demands, devoting their time to the preparation of this book despite other plans, we extend our sincerest appreciation. We also wish to express heartfelt thanks to all who contributed in any way to the completion of our work, particularly Mario D'Antonio, our faculty advisor, J. Gordon White, Head of the Art Department, and to the administration and faculty, without whose help this publication would not be possible.

Scheduled Tuesday and Thursday from noon to 1 P.M., the course is designed to assist students who have difficulty in the subject and is similar to courses at many senior colleges throughout the country.

Though not compulsory, and not carrying scholastic credits, the class has exceeded the school's expectations, enrollment-wise. It is hoped that other students interested in participating in the course will make use of it.
