Spring 1994

Magazine names president educator of the year

Dr. George A. Pruitt

Dr. George A. Pruitt, president of Thomas Edison State College, was named Educator of the Year for 1993 by Black New Jersey Magazine.

The award was presented to Dr. Pruitt at the 13th Annual Black Achievement and Awards Ceremony & Ball at Bally's Park Place Hotel Casino in Atlantic City. Experience, accomplishments and commitment are the criteria for this distinguished award.

Dr. Pruitt came to Thomas Edison State College 10 years ago from his position as executive vice president for the Council for Adult and Experiential Learning. He began a transformation that would lift the College to national prominence. In its awards program, Black New Jersey Magazine noted that Dr. Pruitt's "unswerving dedication to the task at hand, inimitable leadership style and infectious drive rallied not only those around him at the College, but those who came into contact with him at local, state and national levels."

Dr. Pruitt is a graduate of Illinois State University, earning both his B.S. and M.A. degrees from that institution. He earned his Ph.D. in higher education/administration from the Union Institute of Cincinnati.

One of our best: Joseph Kulak '92, '93

by Linda Soltis

You might call him a "Jack Of All Trades," or at least a Joe of all trades. Not only has Joseph S. Kulak had a number of careers, he seems to like variety, too. Currently, he is teaching, part-time, at Mercer County Vocational-Technical Schools. He is calling on his many years of experience as a licensed builder in the construction trades to teach carpentry, general maintenance and other similar trade skills.

It was right after he left the family-owned dry cleaning business, however, that Kulak decided to finish his college education. "My neighbor had been a Thomas Edison student and suggested I give it a try," Kulak explained. "I had a handful of credits from the '60s when I started. Thomas Edison is the best thing that ever happened to me."

Kulak used testing, Thomas Edison's Guided Study program, correspondence courses and classroom instruction to complete degree requirements in three years, earning an Associate in Arts degree in 1992 and a Bachelor of Arts in social science/history in 1993. He was a recipient of the prestigious Arnold Fletcher Award, which recognizes select Thomas Edison baccalaureate graduates for exceptional achievement in independent learning.

It didn't take Kulak long to get involved with the College's Alumni Association. In fact, he was recruited for the Phonathon while he was still a student. "When I got the call during the Pre-Phonathon, I had some free time and decided to help," Kulak said. "I had a good time, and it's contagious."

According to Annette Singer, director of Alumni Affairs, Joe's involvement has been a boon for the Alumni Association. "He came in quietly to see what was going on—and his involvement took off from there," she said.

"Joe is one of those people who rolls up his sleeves and gets right to work," Annette added. "His attitude is, 'just tell me what I can do to help the College.' He's a great asset to Thomas Edison and the Alumni Association."

Joe is currently a member of the Alumni Association Board of Directors, the Souvenir Committee and co-chair of the Alumni Annual Fund Phonathon Committee.

In his spare time, Kulak is a professional musician. He was a member of the band "The Music Company" for years, playing the organ, accordion or "anything with a keyboard." Kulak attributed the demise of bands like his to the new wave of disc jockeys playing recorded music at parties and other events. However, the group does still get together occasionally and jam. He also taught music to prisoners at the former Yardville Correctional Institute.

A lifelong resident of New Jersey, Kulak grew up in Trenton. He currently lives with his wife, Frances, in Hamilton. The couple, who has two sons, Joseph and Aaron, celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on Valentine's Day. Oh, and by the way, although he hasn't made a career out of it, Kulak also loves to cook. He was, in fact, preparing a chicken cacciatore during this interview.

Joe Kulak (center) and his fellow Phonathoners dial for dollars to support the Alumni Annual Fund.

Services for callers enhanced

Helping callers get the right information right away was the impetus behind the new caller response system installed recently at Thomas Edison State College. Whether the call is about applying, reviewing transcripts or graduating, the caller response system will speed callers along toward the answers to their questions.

When the caller response system is dialed, the initial selection is between general information and applicant information, or information for those who are enrolled in the College. Callers are then transferred to the response system that will best meet their needs. Throughout the process, an "operator" selection is offered. However, prospective students, students and friends are encouraged to take advantage of the direct access available through the caller response system.

The caller response system is available on the admissions information line, (609) 984-1150, and the general information line, (609) 984-1100.

Tote your loyalty with you

Alumni Association officers Charlotte L. Cooney, BSBA '91, vice president and Ida B. Hammond, B.A. '78, immediate past president, display the tote bag available from the Alumni Association. At 16" x 12" x 5-1/4", and sporting an extra pocket on the front, this all-purpose, attractive burgundy and white bag is roomy enough to hold books, briefs or bathing suits! For information on how you can make this elegant but inexpensive bag your own, send a check for $12 (per bag) made payable to the Thomas Edison State College Alumni Association to 153 Halsey St., 5th floor, Newark, N.J. 07102-2898. Note: Alumni Association proceeds help support the priorities of Thomas Edison State College.

Free information available about wills, financial planning

Free brochures are available from the Thomas Edison State College Office of Development on a variety of topics that can help you plan for the future through estate and financial planning:

- Rate Your Estate Plan is a quick and easy test for making sure that your estate plan is up-to-date and comprehensive.

- Your Keys to Better Will Planning provides tips for sound will planning, including information about providing for your family, tax issues and more.

- Don't Let Your Will Grow Old includes a brief test to help you determine if your will has kept pace with your lifestyle changes and wishes. It also includes tips for efficient will planning.

If you have not already received one of these timely pieces (they are being mailed to alumni), contact the Office of Development, 101 W. State St., Trenton, N.J. 08608-1176; or call (609) 984-1588.

HONOR ROLL OF CONTRIBUTORS

July 1, 1992-December 31, 1993

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

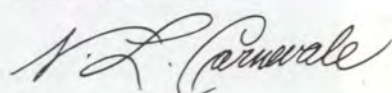

Dear Friends of Thomas Edison State College:

The cold and icy winter that engulfed the East Coast has chilled us to the bone. It has been the type of cold that makes you fear that no amount of heat...or sun...or beach will ever thaw us out.

Your continued support of Thomas Edison State College, as reflected on these pages, has spread warmth through the entire College community. As members of our board of trustees, members of our foundation board, alumni, staff and friends you remain stalwart in your dedication to forward the mission of Thomas Edison State College. You expressed that determination throughout the year by making contributions to support our efforts to develop program initiatives such as the Master of Science in Management; to increase the endowment which will enable the College to project a secure future; to improve our technological infrastructure; and to support our efforts to increase public awareness on the positive things that happen here.

I know that you share with me the great feeling that comes with being a part of Thomas Edison State College and by helping to secure its future.

With much thanks,

Nicholas L. Carnevale, Chairman
Thomas Edison State College Foundation

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION CONTINUES ENDOWMENT SUPPORT

The Thomas Edison State College Alumni Association reaffirmed its staunch support of the College by making another installment on its endowment. A $5,000 endowment was established in 1992 in honor of the College's 20th anniversary and as a way for the Alumni Association to provide long-term financial support for the College's programs and services. This year, the Alumni Association donated $2,500 in honor of College President Dr. George A. Pruitt's 10th anniversary celebration. In addition, the Alumni Association Board has committed to donating a minimum of $1,000 per year to the endowment. Presently, the endowment stands at an impressive $8,500.

"This endowment is our way of making sure that tomorrow's students will have access to a technologically advanced, progressive College," notes Jane Coult '86, president of the Alumni Association Board of Directors. "The Alumni Association backs the College's mission 100 percent, and supports the College through financial contributions, as well as volunteer service."

According to Dr. Natale S. Caliendo, Jr., vice president for Public Affairs, "the support of the Alumni Association is a critical part of our success as a College. We are deeply grateful for this endowment, and hope it stands as an example to others who wish to support the College on a long-term basis."

George Otlowski, Sr., (B.A.) of Perth Amboy, N.J., was recently cited and received Papal blessings by Pope John Paul II, along with his son George Otlowski, Jr., for their "great commitment to the sisters and their humanitarian services for St. Joseph's Seniors Residence and Nursing Home." Otlowski is chairman of the Building Fund Campaign, which is being used for the completion of the new nursing home and furnishings. His son is the attorney for St. Joseph's. A public servant for over 60 years, including serving as the mayor of Perth Amboy for 13 years, Otlowski recently retired from public office.

Donald Selwyn (B.A.) of Warwick, N.Y., recently had a paper entitled "When To Hire a Technology Consultant," published in Reasonable Accommodation: The Journal of Disability Management and ADA Compliance. The eight-page paper addressed ADA compliance by employers and vocational rehabilitation agencies in establishing and maintaining satisfactory employment opportunities for people with disabilities. Selwyn is technical director at The National Institute for Rehabilitation Engineering.

James E. Morgan (B.S.) of Forked River, N.J., is a captain with American Airlines and recently completed training in the McDonnell-Douglas MD-11. The MD-11 is a three-engine transport and is an extensively updated and stretched version of the DC-10. Presently, he writes, his main route is flying between New York (JFK) and London Heathrow airports. Several months ago, in getting to know his co-pilot's background, he found out that Joe Zerbey (BSAST '82) was also a graduate of Thomas Edison State College.

Michael K. Hynes (BSAST) of Frederick, Okla., has been elected president of the Air Line Pilots Association (ALPA), Mutual Aid Association. ALPA is the world's largest pilot's union with over 43,000 members. Hynes was the first nonunion member of the MAA, and was appointed to the Board of Directors in 1990. He was elected to additional terms during the past three years. During his terms of office, many new programs have been put into place, with particular attention to the needs of women airline pilots. Hynes is finishing a doctoral program in the College of Higher Education at Oklahoma State University and received his master's degree from the University of Oklahoma.

Coast Guard Chief Petty Officer Timothy R. Cavanaugh (A.A.) of Newark, N.J., recently received the United States Coast Guard Achievement Medal. Cavanaugh was cited for superior performance of duty while serving at Coast Guard Reserve Training Center in Yorktown, Va., where he is currently assigned. Serving as a resident instructor, Cavanaugh graduated more than 450 Coast Guard boarding officers in addition to over 1,800 foreign students in 31 countries. Qualifying as a team leader, he led 10 trips, including the first high-risk trip to El Salvador. His self-taught Spanish language skill was directly responsible for successful training courses on numerous occasions when interpreters were absent or of poor quality. The award, presented during formal ceremonies, is official recognition for Cavanaugh's diligence, perseverance and devotion to duty.

Alan H. Schorr (B.A.) of Medford, N.J., passed both the New Jersey and the Pennsylvania bar exams recently. He also recently received the Master of Business Administration degree and the Juris Doctor degree from Widener University School of Law. Schorr, who has opened his own law practice in Medford, writes, "I am very proud of my Thomas Edison degree, and grateful for the opportunities that my Thomas Edison degree has afforded me." Schorr is offering a free consultation and substantially reduced rates to all Thomas Edison State College students and alumni. He can be reached by calling (609) 654-6262.
